MEET YOUR CHEF
TONY FERNANDES

Chef Tony Fernandes has won 40 medals from culinary competitions worldwide, and his infectious personality has garnered him spots on Breakfast Television, CBC News, City News and The Food Network.

Before moving his family to Canada in 2001, Chef Tony was Executive Chef at some of the best five-star hotels in India, Saudi Arabia and the United Arab Emirates. He was also part of a team recognized in the Guinness Book of World Records for creating the Biggest Bowl of Biryani!

In 2010, Chef Tony brought victory home from the prestigious Culinary World Cup in Expogast, Luxembourg, where he competed against more than 2,400 chefs and won a silver medal for Canada.

In October 2012, he competed against chefs from 53 countries at the prestigious World Culinary Olympics in Erfurt, Germany, and returned home with a Silver medal for Canada.

Known for his ability to fuse global flavours with foods his guests know and love, Chef Tony is also the Director of the Escoffier Society of Toronto, an honorary lifetime member of the Emirates Culinary Guild, a member of Les Toques Blanches and a Master Craftsman of the UK's Cookery and Food Association. In 2012 he was asked to sit on the Global Advisory Committee that developed international standards for food and beverage management.
